Marketing Plan
Summarize how you will reach customers.

________________________________________

________________________________________

Summarize how you will retain customers.

________________________________________

________________________________________

Competition
Summarize your direct competitors (companies that sell what you will sell in the same market).

________________________________________

________________________________________

Indirect competitors (who sell something customers could substitute for the product/service you sell).

________________________________________

________________________________________

Competitive Advantage
Why will customers buy from you? How are you different from your competitors?

________________________________________

________________________________________

TIP:
Each of the sections of the Executive Summary should be no more than one paragraph.
Company Description

Description

When was your business formed? _________________________________

What is the legal structure of your business? _________________________________

Where will your business be located? _________________________________

Tip: Most small businesses are sole proprietors, partnerships, LLCs, or S-Corps

Example:

Phase 1: Operate out of home, employing family and two employees. Sell to local market.

Phase 2: Add two more employees and look for leased space when sales reach around $100,000; add second product.

Phase 3: Add service capacity when sales reach around $250,000, and hire additional employees.
TIP:
Include locations, employees, milestones, goals, and timeline for adding new products and services.
Management Team

Tip:
This is just a sample organizational chart. All of these blocks may not be filled right away, or other blocks may be needed.

Also,
These roles may be filled by outside resources and advisors. Include them, too.

Tip:
You will need to include a resume of each manager in the appendix of your plan.

If you’re using this plan to apply for a loan, you’ll also need to attach personal financial statements of each person who owns more than 18% of the business.
Qualifications

For each member of your management team, describe what qualifies him/her to fill these roles? Include a short (one paragraph for each) bio of relevant skills and experience in your written plan.
Operations

Description of Process for each Major Category of Product/Service:

Product/Service:

- Manufacturing:
  If you’re making products, describe the steps and materials needed for the process.

- Reseller:
  If you’re selling products made somewhere else, describe the steps to obtain, receive, and sell the products.

- Service Provider:
  If you’re performing a service, describe the service and any materials and labor needed.

Attention to detail is important here.

Pricing Strategy

How will you determine what prices to charge?

Tip:

Optimum pricing takes into consideration:

- Competitors’ prices
- Your costs
- How much customers will value your product, compared to other choices.

Will your price be higher than, the same as, or lower than your competitors’ prices? Explain why?

Use this chart to compare price structure of your 4 top products:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Use this chart to compare price structure of your 4 top products.</th>
<th>Competitor 1</th>
<th>Competitor 2</th>
<th>Competitor 3</th>
