Target Market
What customers will you concentrate on?
What are the defining characteristics of each?
What is the size of this market in your area?
How will your company meet the needs of these customers?

Tip:
The Executive Summary should be written LAST and summarizes the main points of the entire document.
It also explains the purpose of the plan.
Keep it brief.

Summarize:

- What customers will you concentrate on?
- What are the defining characteristics of each?
- What is the size of this market in your area?
- How will your company meet the needs of these customers?
Marketing Plan

Summarize how you will reach customers.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Summarize how you will retain customers.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Competition

Summarize your direct competitors (companies that sell what you will sell in the same market).

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Indirect competitors (who sell something customers could substitute for the product/service you sell).

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Competitive Advantage

Why will customers buy from you? How are you different from your competitors?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

TIP:

Each of the sections of the Executive Summary should be no more than one paragraph.
Company Description

Description

When was your business formed? ____________________________________________

What is the legal structure of your business? ________________________________

Where will your business be located? ______________________________________

Tip:

Most small businesses are sole proprietors, partnerships, LLCs, or S-Corps

Example:

Phase 1: Operate out of home, employing family and two employees. Sell to local market.

Phase 2: Add two more employees and look for leased space when sales reach around $100,000; add second product.

Phase 3: Add service capacity when sales reach around $250,000, and hire additional employees.
TIP:
Include locations, employees, milestones, goals, and timeline for adding new products and services.
Tip:
This is just a sample organizational chart. All of these blocks may not be filled right away, or other blocks may be needed.

Also,
These roles may be filled by outside resources and advisors. Include them, too.

Tip:
You will need to include a resume of each manager in the appendix of your plan.

If you’re using this plan to apply for a loan, you’ll also need to attach personal financial statements of each person who owns more than 18% of the business.
Qualifications

For each member of your management team, describe what qualifies him/her to fill these roles? Include a short (one paragraph for each) bio of relevant skills and experience in your written plan.
Operations

Description of Process for each Major Category of Product/Service:

Product/Service: _____________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Manufacturing:
If you’re making products, describe the steps and materials needed for the process.

Reseller:
If you’re selling products made somewhere else, describe the steps to obtain, receive, and sell the products.

Service Provider:
If you’re performing a service, describe the service and any materials and labor needed.

Attention to detail is important here.

Tip:
Optimum pricing takes into consideration:
- Competitors’ prices
- Your costs
- How much customers will value your product, compared to other choices.

Use this chart to compare price structure of your 4 top products:
